

CONFERENCE The Piri Reis World Map of 1513

2013 has been declared by UNESCO
"The year of Piri Reis"
on the occasion of the 500th anniversary of the Map of 1513

As one of the most beautiful and mysterious maps to survive the Great Age of Discoveries drawn by the Ottoman Admiral Piri Reis,
The "Piri Reis World Map" is an invaluable piece of the World's documentary heritage as it provides insight on the history of its time.

You are cordially invited to reveal the mystery of this world heritage piece.

Date

Friday, 14 June 2013, 13:30-16:30

Location

The University of Greenwich
King William Building
King William Lecture Theatre 315
Greenwich
London SE10 9LS

Speakers:

Prof. Gregory McIntosh, Author of The Piri Reis Map of 1513, USA
Metin Ataç, Retired Admiral (Former Commander in Chief of The Turkish Navy),
The President of the International Association of Maritime Studies (IAMS), TURKEY

Moderator:

Prof. Dr. Osman Kamil Saę, The Rector of Piri Reis University, TURKEY

Admission is free. Booking advised.

e-mail: embassy.london@mfa.gov.tr

generously sponsored by

