RE: North-Central Georgia Classic Lamb Show

Enclosed you will find the rules and entry form for the North-Central Georgia Classic Lamb Show. The show will again be held at the Morgan County Agriculture Center located north of Madison on U.S. 129 and 441 on August 25, 2012. A few special notes to keep in mind for this year's show are:

- 1) This year we will again have a separate Breeding Ewe Show--entry fee $10.00. Entry form attached.
- 2) As usual, exhibitors need to plan to contain their own lambs. Tie spaces will be available, stalls may or may not be available.
- 3) Note that the weigh-in deadline will be 10:30 a.m.
- 4) Each county group must clean up their own area. This includes trash and wool. This helps keep clean-up expenses to a minimum.
- 5) Any lamb with visible lesions will be sent home, so don't bring them.
- 6) There will be a peewee showmanship class.
- 7) In addition to health papers, all ewes (breeding or market) must have a USDA Scrapie tag to be eligible to show. A health inspector will be present when you arrive.

We are looking forward to a great show and I hope to see you there.
