

NYC Parks Fellowship & Conservation Corps Program

Support New York City's Parks and Natural Areas

The NYC Department of Parks and Recreation is seeking motivated and energetic applicants to become the next generation of leaders dedicated to public service and to protecting and enhancing New York City's parks and natural resources.

The NYC Parks Fellowship and Conservation Corps Program is a paid 40-week public service commitment that features professional placements throughout a diverse and dynamic city agency, as well as an ongoing seminar series with career development opportunities and service projects.

Term: September 2014–June 2015

Salary: $18/hour

Program Features

- 40-week, full-time fellowship
- Professional placement in administrative and field positions throughout the agency
- Ongoing, hands-on service projects in parks
- Professional development seminars and career development opportunities

Preferred Skills

- Interest in public service, the environment, and NYC
- Strong leadership and communication skills
- Ability to take initiative, meet deadlines, prioritize projects, and work as a member of a team
- Bachelor's degree

To complete the application package, visit nyc.gov/parks and search for "Conservation Corps."

For help, email conservationcorps@parks.nyc.gov.

NYC Parks