Mr. William C. “Bill” Bailsey 2015 “Sumpin’ Big” Scholarship Opportunity

William C. “Bill” Baisley has been a key leader throughout his career in Georgia agriculture and will always hold a place of prominence in the economic success of our state’s $25.2 billion poultry industry. He has been an active member of the Georgia Agribusiness Council for more than 30 years serving in every leadership position possible. Bill helped lay the foundation, secure the roof, and strengthen the load bearing walls of our organization by insisting on sound management based on the fundamentals of service and a love for people.

In 1991, facing a number of challenges, GAC leaders conducted a strategic planning retreat in Macon. Simply, Bill challenged the group to dream big. Bill said, “Fellows, we need sumpin big.”

The challenge yielded a commitment to study providing worker’s compensation insurance to the agribusiness industry in Georgia. AgriTrust of Georgia serves nearly 400 businesses and provides self-funded direction to this vital component of business insurance covering over 16,000 food and fiber industry employees. Bill was a founding trustee and remains active today. Many people played an important role in the formation of AgriTrust, but Bill’s original challenge set the journey in motion.
