

Graphics Production Internship Application Georgia FFA Convention 2017

High School graduates now college or university students in agricultural communications, agricultural education, or journalism with FFA backgrounds are needed to work behind the scenes in the computer graphics and video operation during the Georgia FFA convention in Macon, April 27-29, 2017. Please email this application by Friday, March 3, 2017.

This Acrobat Document can be filled out with the Acrobat Typewriter Tool

Computer Graphics Intern Activities:

- Create and/or update graphic presentations for convention sessions
- Create and/or revise video and/or animations
- Work with professional technical staff to display presentations on arena projection system
- Other audio-visual activities as assigned

Name: _____

High School Attended: _____ Year Graduated: _____

College or University Currently Attending: _____

Current Major: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City: _____ State/Zip: _____

Cell Phone #: _____

Email Address: _____

Were you an FFA member? Yes No

If yes, list your FFA chapter & activities:

Please list communications background and classes taken:

Please list the graphics and other computer programs you have used:

Could you arrive in Macon Monday, April 24th (arrival time negotiable)?

Yes No If not, when could you arrive?

Please return this application, along with your resume, references and any graphics samples you wish to submit by 5:00 p.m. Eastern time Friday, March 3, 2017, to: Marshall Poole, Technical Director, Georgia FFA Convention, Email: mpoole@usa.net

Graphics Internship Summary

Georgia FFA Convention 2017

Dates:

Intern must arrive in Macon Monday, April 24th, for orientation and beginning work. Earlier arrival is encouraged. Departure is late Saturday, April 29th.

Responsibilities:

- Scan finalist and winner photos
- Create and/or update PowerPoint presentations for convention sessions
- Collaborate with professional staff to create or adapt graphic still or animated presentations
- Work with professional technical staff to create and display presentations on arena live event projection systems
- Assist in managing convention session live streaming

Required Skills:

- Good computer skills, including competence with Microsoft PowerPoint
- Familiarity with Photoshop and other graphics software
- Ability and willingness to work as a team with professional graphics and video staff as well as Georgia FFA Association staff

Beneficial Skills:

- Familiarity with the FFA and its programs
- Competence with Photoshop and other graphics software
- Competence with Mac Keynote
- Competence with video editing software

Expenses:

Internship includes hotel (based on possible double occupancy with another intern), and most meals on site.

For more information contact:

Marshall Poole, Convention Technical Director
Phone: 505-670-9838
Email: mpoole@usa.net